ADMIRAL MOORE'S SUCCESSOR, BOUSH, WILL COME SOON

New Commandant Comes from Atlantic, Where He Commands 2nd Division—Moore Lauds Him as Splendid Officer With Excellent Record

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Rear-admiral Clifford J. Boush has been designated to succeed Rear-admiral C. B. T. Moore as commandant of the naval station, Hawaii. Admiral Boush is now in command of the 2nd division of the Atlantic fleet, his flagship being the Utah.

C. S. ALBERT.
"Admiral Boush is a splendid officer, and Hawaii is in luck to get him as commandant," said Admiral Moore when the above cable message from the Star-Bulletin's Washington correspondent was read to him over the telephone this morning. "I believe he has been here before, but he has never been stationed here to my knowledge. He is well up on the 'lower nine' and has a fine record in the service."

Admiral Moore, who retires July 23, states that he will be relieved about July 15, so the new commandant may be expected here about the middle of next month.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Baron K. Aupo, naval attaché of the Japanese embassy to the Court of St. James, will leave this city in the steamer Persia on his way to Tokyo.

The steamer Persia is scheduled to arrive in Honolulu July 3. The local Japanese consulate probably will arrange a reception for Baron Aupo.

SOLD DOPE, ROBBED BUYER OF STUFF SCULLY'S AIDES MAKE AN ISLAND TOUR

To sell a man forbidden goods, take his money after charging "all the traffic will bear," see him out the front door, and then rush out the back way, circle around and hold him up and rob him of his purchase, sounds like a profitable way of doing business.

That was done by J. T. Scully, and his plump trade confederates on many occasions, declares an affidavit now on record in federal court.

Additional details are thrown on various opium deals which have been effected in Honolulu during the last two or three years in affidavits obtained by U. S. District Attorney Jeff McCann from George A. ("Bert") Bower, Paul H. Boggs, Mrs. Victoria Hyland and E. C. Reilly shortly before John T. Scully was sentenced by Federal Judge Charles F. Clemons to serve a year and a half in Oahu prison for transporting and otherwise dealing in opium.

Bower, Boggs and Reilly are now serving sentences in Oahu prison, the first two for first degree robbery and the latter on an opium charge. It is alleged that Bower and Boggs were convicted largely through evidence furnished by the city and county attorney's office by Scully.

The affidavits, which were not taken into consideration by the federal judge in sentencing Scully, have to do with the part Scully is said to have played in alleged opium transactions in Honolulu during the last eight years. They are now a matter of public record in federal court and are prefaced by an affidavit sworn to by District Attorney McCann.

McCann's statement is as follows:

"Affiant further says that his investigations have shown beyond question that the defendant's conduct in violating the law against traffic in smoking opium has been persistent, extensive and most flagrant in its character, par-

Longley Will Market Pines

Headquarters for Sale of Island Pineapples Grown By "Independents" to Be Established in Chicago in Near Future

To open the division's office in San Francisco and to establish in the East and Middle West a market for pineapples grown by homesteaders on Oahu which are not contracted for at the canneries, A. T. Longley, superintendent of the territorial marketing division, will leave for the mainland either in the Matsushima next Wednesday or in the transport Thomas on July 5.

By today's mail Mr. Longley received authority from the department of agriculture in Washington, D. C., to expend $200 for the trip to the coast. The balance of this appropriation with other money furnished by local pineapple growers amounting to about $200, will be used by Mr. Longley for a trip to Chicago, where he will establish the pineapple marketing headquarters.

The matter of the establishment of a pineapple market in the East was fully explained to the department when the division asked for the $200 appropriation, says Mr. Longley, and it is understood that a part of the money is to be used for the trip to Chicago.

As the $200 comes from the federal government, it may be expended only by a person in the employ of the government. As a result of meeting with the division has held with homesteaders in the various pineapple-growing districts on Oahu, the growers arrived at the conclusion that Longley was the man to make the trip and establish the market.

Mr. Longley explained today that the money furnished by the growers for the trip will be paid back to them from the proceeds of pineapple sales.

The division will hold a meeting with the Pearl City growers Sunday, and it is expected that a general meeting of growers will be held in Honolulu Monday. At this time, says Mr. Longley, the details of establishing the eastern market will be worked out.

Mr. Longley expects to be absent about a month. While in San Francisco he will interview the heads of the various transpacific steamship companies doing business at this port in an endeavor to have the companies provide more space on their vessels for the shipment of fruit from Honolulu to the coast.

NO AGREEMENT TO LET BARTLETT GO, SCHUMAN REPLIES

Brewery President, Referring to Treasurer Parke's Statement, Makes Denial

SAYS DIRECTORS KNEW
SUCH ACTION WRONG
Were Advised By Attorney That Criminal Proceedings Were Not Forestalled

That the directors of the Honolulu Brewing & Malting Company never at any time or in any way agreed to let Charles G. Bartlett, just ousted as president and manager, go free of prosecution is the emphatic statement made to the Star-Bulletin today by President Schuman of the brewery.

Mr. Schuman's attention was called yesterday to the statement by Treasurer Parke of the brewery in which Parke said the directors "informally" agreed not to prosecute Bartlett as long as he was "squaring up" for about $32,000.

"The directors of the brewery never made such an agreement, formally or informally," said President Schuman today. "We never discussed letting him go. The directors were not born yesterday—they know that they'd have to be careful about making such an agreement."

"At the time the second $15,000 was paid back by Bartlett, the attorney—Mr. Breckons—said that this would not operate to forestall any criminal proceedings, either by the county attorney's office or anybody else. We were told that any officer or stockholder could prosecute Bartlett."

KOREANS PLEAD FOR OUSTING OF NEW OFFICIALS

Say Hong Han Sick and Others Seized Books and Papers "With Force and Arms"

The "inside" fight of the members of the National Korean association has been taken into court. The "old faction," 19 members of which claim to have been threatened with death at the hands of the "new faction," filed proceedings in circuit court today to oust alleged false officers of the organization.

The petition goes on to state that the charter of the association requires a regular election to be held on February 1 of each year, the officers to hold their positions until the following January. The suit is made in the name of the old officers, who allege that on June 15 the respondents to the suit held a fake election and that the following officers were "elected" to take the positions they, the petitioners, believe they rightfully are entitled to retain:

Hong Han Sick, president; Chung In Soo, vice-president; Ahn Huen Kyung, general manager; Ahn Young Chul, secretary-treasurer; Choo Young Whan, chairman of the charity committee and Lee Chong Hoo, critic. These are the respondents.

The petition recites "that the respondents illegally and without authority held a supposed election on or about June 15 and claimed to depose the regularly elected officers of the association and to have elected themselves officers, and thereafter with force and arms seized the books and papers of said corporation and have proceeded to act as officers therein and carry on the affairs thereof; that the said respondents have no right or title to such offices in the Korean National Association of Hawaii, and they and each of them has usurped the offices of said corporation which they now claim and have wrongfully assumed to control the property thereof and wrongfully and unlawfully claim the right to do so."

The petition asks that quo warranto issue, demanding that the respondents be brought into court to show under what authority, if any, they hold office. The old officers, which are as follows, are the petitioners: Kim Hong Kung, president; Shim Hong Keung, vice president; Park Won Kul, general manager; Hans Chai Myeung, secretary and treasurer; Whang Sun Mo, critic; and Ha Ell Chung, chairman of the charity committee.

The suit is brought in the name of the association by its "regular" officers, the petitioners named above. Lorin Andrews represents the petitioners.

200,000 CHICAGO WORKERS MAY BE IDLE IN A WEEK

Employers in Building Trades Closing Down on Account of Unfavorable Conditions

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
CHICAGO, Ill., June 25.—Chicago is facing an industrial crisis as serious in its way as the striking of street car employees which, fortunately, was called off when the disputes were referred to arbitration.

The owners of lumber yards employing 10,000 men today voted to close down. This is the first of a series of similar votes expected among the building trade employers, on account of unfavorable trade conditions. The shut-down in building material plants, it is stated today, will by the end of the week throw 200,000 men out of work.

YALE CREW TAKES DESPERATE RACE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 25.—Yale won the annual varsity boat race from Harvard today, by a bare third of a length. It was one of the most sensational finishes in the history of intercollegiate sport. Had Harvard won, it would have meant a clean sweep for the crimson in every branch of sport, from football to rowing.

PAK BAPTIZED AS CATHOLIC BEFORE DEATH

Pak Chi Ser, a Korean, this morning paid the penalty for the murder of his wife when he was hanged at the territorial prison at 8:13 o'clock this morning. Life was pronounced extinct by Dr. W. L. Moore 19 minutes later. The Korean's neck was instantly broken by the fall. The body was cut down by the prison attendants when the last flutter of the pulse had died away.

High Sheriff William Jarrett prepared the scaffold last night upon which Pak Chi Ser was hanged. It was placed at the same spot used three years ago for the execution of three Filipinos.

The Korean was "game" to the last. He never wavered or showed signs of weakening unless it was for a moment when the black cap was quickly slipped over his head. He stoutly refused to make a statement before the drop was lowered.

The condemned man was attended by Lt. Col. Blanche Cox and Captain A. Neilson of the Salvation Army. Through Pak Ho Dong, a Korean interpreter and worker identified with the local corps, Pak Chi Ser was given spiritual advice and consolation during his last moments.

It is said the Korean was baptized and received into the Catholic faith last night, ritual being performed by Father Valentin. The clergyman was also present at the execution, but did not accompany the man to the platform.

More than 50 persons were admitted to the prison compound. Many of the spectators were territorial and city and county officers and police. Hundreds were gathered outside the prison who had been refused admission.

The body was turned over to H. H. Williams for disposal. It will be buried by the territory.

WORCESTER LECTURES NET $250 FOR LEAHI

More than $250 was raised for the benefit of Leahi Home as a result of two lectures on the Philippines given by Dean C. Worcester at the University club last night and Monday of this week, according to A. M. Nowell, treasurer of the club. It is understood the money will be used to provide additional beds at the home for accommodating indigent patients. The lectures were arranged by the University club.

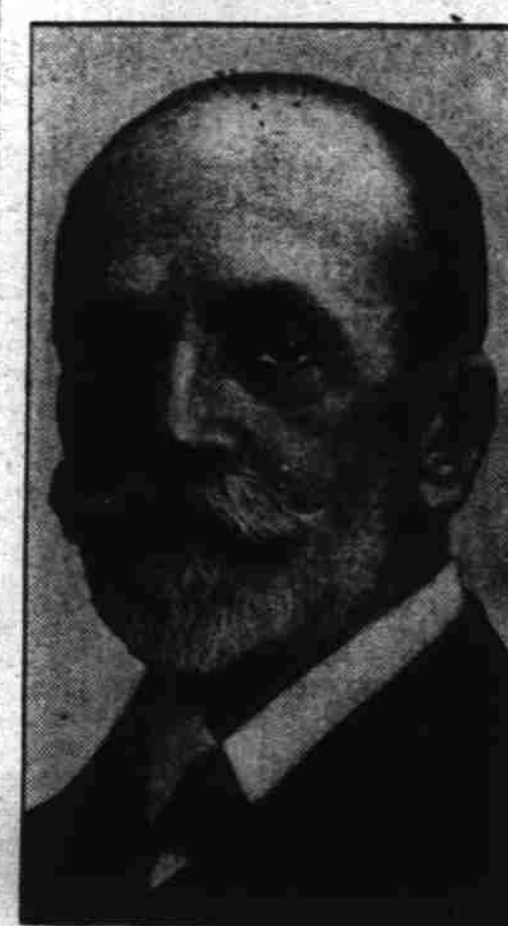

Mr. Worcester and his party depart for the Orient today in the Shinjo Maru. Last evening he talked on the head hunting tribes in the Philippines.

YUAN WILL GIVE CHINA ANOTHER CONSTITUTION

Dr. Frank J. Goodnow, in Honolulu Today, Going to China to Work Out Details

China is to have a new constitution—not a hastily thrown together instrument compiled by men unfamiliar with the workings of a republican form of government, but one framed by experts.

Yuan Shih-kai, though execrated by the Chinese Nationalists as a dictator and usurper, has had Dr. Frank J. Goodnow of Baltimore, Maryland, one of the ablest living authorities on constitutional law, at work on the new constitution for more than a year.

Dr. Goodnow, who is in Honolulu today, having arrived this morning from the mainland in the Shinjo Maru, is bound for China to lay the results of his winter's labors before the president of the republic.

"I am returning to China to advise and assist in the drafting of a new constitution," he said today.

"This is not my first visit to the new republic. I passed through Honolulu last year on my way to Peking to begin preliminary work on the drafting of a constitution."

Dr. Goodnow says that his appointment came directly through the Yuan Shih-kai government, and was not in any way due to the influence or suggestion of President Wilson or the

GERMANS WIN SMALL ADVANCE IN ARGONNES—CZAR'S SOLDIERS MAKE STAND ON BANKS OF DNEISTER AND FORCE LINSINGEN'S TROOPS TO SOUTHERN SIDE—AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON DENIES ITALIAN CLAIMS, DECLARING ENEMY LOST THOUSANDS IN ATTACK—NORWEGIAN STEAMER TORPEDOED AND SET AFIRE BY GERMAN SUBMARINE, CREW RESCUED

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
UDINE, Italy, June 25.—Slowly, owing to the necessity of fighting over high mountains and through deep passes, the Italians are advancing both east along the Fella Valley and south through Predil pass, toward Tarvis. This is the pivot around which has occurred every great invasion of Austria from Italy.

LONDON, England, June 25.—Up to noon today $750,000,000 of the new war loan had been applied for at the banks. The subscriptions were mostly for moderate sums and from the rapidity with which the loan is being taken up it is evident that it will soon all be floated.

LONDON, England, June 25.—The German official accounts of the fighting along the river Dneister, to which the Russians have been driven in their disastrous Galician campaign, agree with the Russian reports concerning the desperation of the struggle.

In that part of Galicia the Russians have turned at bay and though terribly punished by the Austro-Germans are administering a check to their pursuers.

The Teutonic version of the fighting admits that at one point the Austro-Germans have been forced into retrogression, stating that counter attacks in superior numbers by the Russians at Martiner have caused a portion of Gen. von Linsingen's troops to be withdrawn from the northern bank of the Dneister.

German Official Reports Show Russians Make Stand on Dneister

The following cablegram was received today from official German sources:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Headquarters report, June 25: On the west front all attacks of the enemy have been repulsed. The Germans made local gains in several places. "On the east front the village of Kopaczyska has been evacuated by the Germans. The Germans conquered west of Stegna part of the enemy's lines. The situation of Field Marshal Mackensen's army is unchanged. Part of Gen. Linsingen's army, northwest of Palicz, has been taken back on the south bank of the Dneister up the river. The German attacks on the left wing of the army are advancing near Chodorow."

Austro-German Embassy Denies Claim of Italians That Front Was Pierced

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The Austro-Hungarian embassy, after receiving despatches from Europe, gave out the declaration today that Plawa is still held by the Austrians.

The embassy denies the claims of Italy that the Italians have broken the Austrian front. The embassy says it has information that thousands of Italians were lost in the attack, which failed of its purpose.

"At least 3000 Italian dead lie unburied before the positions," say the Austrians. "Our losses were considerably smaller."

Activity Resumed on West Front; Germans Charge on Meuse Positions

LONDON, England, June 25.—On the west there is a resumption of activity on the Meuse heights, where the Germans attacked violently the positions held by the Allies. The French announcements today admit that at first the Germans advanced but declare that counter-attacks by the French forces were successful to the point of reestablishing the lines.

In the Argonne district the Germans have made some advance.

Norwegian Steamer Torpedoed and Then Set Afire by the Germans

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, June 25.—The Norwegian steamer Truma, torpedoed by a German submarine, was then set afire by the Germans. The crew was rescued.

OAHU BATTERIES ARE NAMED FOR HEROES OF U. S. ARMY

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The war department has named Oahu batteries in honor of deceased military heroes. Batteries have been named for the following: S. C. Mills, for a colonel; Dodge, for a major; Hullings, for a colonel killed at Spotsylvania; Barry, for a captain killed at Gettysburg; and Chandler, for Lieut. Chandler, the victim of an aviation accident.

Whether this means that new batteries here are to be named as above, or that the present coast defenses are to be renamed, which would be a most unusual proceeding, is not known here. All the batteries now in existence are already named. Col. W. C. Rafferty, commanding the coast defenses of Oahu, could throw no light on the subject when interviewed this afternoon. He said it was the first he had heard of any such action.
